

Junior Accounting & Tax Consultant (Tax Reporting & Strategy)

Few things have the same impact on governments, individuals, companies and other organisations as taxes. Benjamin Franklin already recognised it to be one of life's certainties in 1789.

Would you like to be part of the ever-changing and globalising world of finance and tax matters? Helping some of the most fascinating companies and individuals on the planet to deal with their statutory and tax requirements will allow you to develop yourself throughout your career in a challenging and international environment. Your skills and creativity will contribute to solving complex issues and will generate new planning ideas for our clients. Plenty of opportunities are there for you to seize them!

At PwC you can opt for a combination of Accounting and Tax. You assist clients in complying with their accounting, statutory and tax requirements in the broadest sense. You help them have a good understanding of the requirements and the impact on their organisation, looking at processes and technology, data and governance. You will also assist with their general and management accounts, statutory closing and financial statements as well as all corporate and indirect tax reporting aspects. A particularly varied and challenging job.

Qualifications

- You have a master's degree in Law, (Applied) Economics, Commercial Engineering or Business Studies or a bachelor's degree in Accountancy/Taxation or Law Practice.
- A qualification in Tax would be a bonus.
- You are graduating this academic year or have a maximum of two years' experience.
- Interest in (tax) technology and how this will impact clients is an asset.
- You are a motivated and dynamic team player with an eye for detail and an eagerness to learn. You are able to work on your own and have a good sense of responsibility. You are client-oriented and have good social skills. You have a critical mind and you want to avoid following the beaten track by thinking out of the box.

Sounds like your profile? Then you could be the person we're looking for!

Our offer

You will become part of one of the leading global professional services firms, where you get the opportunity to develop yourself throughout your entire career and work in creative, challenging and often multidisciplinary & international teams. To facilitate your development, we have an extensive internal and external learning and development programme to offer. You will receive an attractive total package, including a gross salary, a company car with fuel card, a laptop, a mobile phone with spendable budget, cost allowances, hospitalisation coverage, life insurance and an occupational pension scheme. If you are hired, you will start in July, August or September 2018.

We have this opportunity at our Brussels, Ghent or Antwerp office.

"Join our multidisciplinary and dynamic team of accounting & tax consultants and help our clients in getting control over their finance and tax affairs in an ever-changing environment."
